LIVES AFTER THE LIGHTNING HIT HIM

Young Man at Fort Sumner Has Peculiar Experience in Storm.

Fort Sumner, N. M., June 6.—S. G. Wimberly was brought to here Saturday afternoon for surgical aid. He had been mangled by lightning and yet lives to tell the tale. If no complications set in he will be about with crutches soon.

Friday afternoon he and his father were in their claim shack waiting for a thunder storm to pass. The father was lying on the cot and the son was at the window. He changed to be holding a file and a butcher knife. At his feet were scattered various tools.

Lightning struck the shack, knocked both men unconscious, tore three holes in the roof, smashed the tin, pots, and other things in the shaft and tore the left shoe nearly from the son's foot.

The son revived first. When the father, who had been knocked off the bed, came too, the son asked him to clear away the shoe and see the damage done. The father at first believed his own legs were broken, but soon found that they were all right and started for help.

The wounded man was brought in here and his foot was dressed by the Santa Fe surgeon. This surgeon reports that the man's heel is crushed as though it had been squeezed in a vice.

BIG SPRINGS LOCALS.

Big Springs, Tex., June 6.—The second story is being added to the new $75,000 passenger depot, and it is going to be a substantial building. It will be ready for occupancy by July 12.

T. H. Rooney and W. H. Moore, engineers from Fort Worth, were here Wednesday on their way between El Paso to the City of Mexico for a 30 days' vacation.

FLOOD DAMAGE AT FT. SUMNER HEAVY

Citizen Donates Lots to the Schools and Then Loans To Schools on Them.

Fort Sumner, N. M., June 6.—After nearly four days of maneuvering the rain clouds succeeded in lining up for a regular drenching to Fort Sumner and vicinity, ending a two year drought. Water came down in sheets and muddy streams ran down every slope.

The volume of water drained into the canal from the higher ground on the north caused a bad break in the canal bank. The water cut through just above the gardens and has caused a great deal of the damage there. Before this break relieved the pressure in the ditch, the water was raised so high in Lake Sumner by the drainage waters from the plains that grave fears were held for the safety of the confining dyke. Should the 25 acres of water in the ditch cut off a concession for the present level, the gardens between the lake and the river below would be badly cut to pieces.

A wave of water as high as the fences came down a draw from the northeast and washed out the railroad so as to stop all traffic for 12 hours, flooded the pumping plant, carried out 100 yards of the dike between the canal and the lake and raised the 25 acre lake eight feet in 30 minutes. Men were hurriedly gathered by the company and cuts made in the dikes to relieve the pressure and save the lake.

D. J. McKinnis has given the school district three lots and then loaned the district $200 on them.

Four carloads of poles are in and two more on the road for the toll line connection with Santa Rosa. The Colorado Telephone company is coming in that way and will connect the toll line of the Roosevelt County company along the cut-off as a concession for the use of the poles now up. Fort Sumner now has 56 phones.

The Rockwell Lumber company's office and a hundred feet of its storage shed are now nearly complete.

The Williamson building is nearly ready for its tenant. The Land company will use it pending the erection of its mission style office.

Commercial hotel is being enlarged.

The manager of the new lumber company has offered a 50 foot lot on Sumner avenue as an inducement for the postmaster to move the office there.

Ten men have come to the aid of the school board and will lend their credit as a solution of the problem presented by the fact that so much of the land is not patented.

G. M. McKinley has gone to Chicago for a stay of several months.

Dr. Wharton has leased the McKinley property and is moving in.

A. O. Elliott has been made the local manager for the Rockwell yards.

At the meeting of the town council the work was turned over to the officers, Z. C. Prina, D. Ridgeway, J. R. Welker, G. P. Jacobson, councilmen; W. N. Wilson, marshal, and Chas. Krueger, street commissioner, and Robt. S. Patterson, clerk. The mayor is to be appointed at the councilman.

Before the retiring members left their chairs they voted $50 to the Sahara fund for park seats.

EL PASOANO BUYS A MEXICAN RANCH

Gen. Terrazas Sells San Luis Ranch—Irrigating at Dublin.

Colonia Dublin, Mexico, June 6.—The San Luis ranch, on the Santa Maria river, belonging to Gen. Luis Terrazas, has been sold to L. E. Booker. It is the ranch that Lord Wiseman, of England, was figuring on buying. Mr. Booker expects to stock the ranch with cattle and to buy the land. The ranch is the surrounding ranches in the near future.

Dublin is talking of improving her pumping plant, and substituting steam or gasoline for the horse flesh that is now producing the motive power. The water from the shallow well from which they draw their supply does not seem to draw the water from the bottom of the well.

Colonia Diaz is figuring on trying the same experiment. The colonists will install the pump invented and patented by Mr. Galbraith, one of their own citizens. He guarantees that they will receive as much water for every $100 expended as they do from one water right in the Palata creek, which is selling now for $500. After the pump is in operation the water raised will form part of the motive power for running it, thus greatly lessening the expense of running it. Other colonists are anxiously awaiting the results of that particular pump.

John Jacobson with his force of 12 or 15 men, has already lowered about half of the high places planned to be accomplished this year, in the large reservoir canal.

Philip Hurst, the little son of Arthur Hurst, fell from a wagon and bruised his arm quite badly.

The Union Mercantile has just received a shipment of six wind mills for the Olitos ranch.

Calvin Alfred, of Colonia Juarez, has been stricken with a very severe rheumatic pain, which almost disabled him. His folks were up from Colonia Juarez last evening to meet Archie Clayton as he came in from his mission to England, where he has been for the last two years.

The weather is cooler and a few drops of rain have fallen.

Mrs. Sarah Lunt is in from Pacheco. She says they have had rain in the mountains for two days, and it was coming down through the mountains that they had to wrap up in quilts to keep warm.

MAN ESCAPES FROM HOSPITAL

Was a Prisoner on a Theft Charge—Wind Does Damage—New Council.

Safford, Ariz., June 6.—Fred Thompson, convicted on a charge of petty theft, escaped from the county hospital. Thompson was arrested some two weeks ago and convicted of entering eight different business houses and dwellings during the previous work. He was sentenced to six months in the county jail, but was brought to the county hospital at this place, where a slight operation was performed. He was shackled and locked in his room by his keepers, but escaped. He was traced across the street to Thurston's blacksmith shop, where he sawed the shackles in two. From there he evidently went to the CCC ranch, a short distance away, for a hammer and small file was found. It is believed he has the steel bands about his ankles. Yet Special officer Wilson went to Bowie, Ariz., close to his whereabouts has been found.

A strong wind raged here and did considerable damage to light roofs and sign boards. Rain fell on the mountain and in Stockton pass, but this section was not visited by the slightest shower. It was well for the farmer, for tons and tons of hay and grain were on the ground.

The Sheddwood sawmill in the Graham mountains has begun operations, employing a full force of men. The lumber will be delivered in Safford, from which place it will be shipped.

Dr. J. G. Belt has booked his fine trotter, Prince Zembra, in the Kansas and Oklahoma circuit, which begins the races on the fourth of July at Bartlesville, Okla. McEuen, the trainer, also has a fine trotter, Maggie Barkley, which has been entered in the same races.
